Joshua F. Page Gets a Verdict for $2,816.76.

The jury in the suit of Joshua F. Page against Gen. Isaac S. Catlin, of Erook-lyn, returned a scaled verdict to Judge Truax, in the Supreme Court, this morning in favor of Mr. Page for the full amount asked, $2,816.76. Gen. Avery, who was associate counsel

Gen. Avery, who was associate counsel with Gen. Catlin in defending the suit. moved for a new trial. Judge Truax denied the motion.

The suit was to recover an amount which Page alleged was due him upon the settlement of a suit by Gen. Catlin, as his attorney, for injuries received in an accident on the Brooklyn Bridge.

Gen. Catlin set up the defense that he had paid Anthony Barrett $2.500 as special counsel. Page denied having authorized Gen. Catlin to employ Barrett.

Clenowski was married a week and to Marie Charmski, and his friend. Andrew Sabul, who worked alongside him in the Havemeyer sugar refinery, disapproved of his choice. Then the two men had a fight, and as Sabul got the worst of it, he swore out a warrant for the arrest of Clenowski.

BROOKLYN "L" BLOCKED.

An Hour's Delay Caused by the Breaking Down of an Engine.

Traffic on both the Lexington avenue and Fifth avenue lines, was blocked for about an hour by the breaking down of an engine on the Lexington Avenue "L" road, Brooklyn, at 7 o'clock this morning, near the bridge.

No notice of the trouble was given to patrons of either line and the result was that stations were packed with would-be passengers.

Thousands of people were obliged to walk to the bridge, from City Hall and Bridge street stations.

Upset by a Trolley Car.

Frederick Hunter, a milkman, of 10 Celumbia reet, Brooklyn, was driving along Furman street, between Montague and Jerolognan streets, at a o'clock this morning when are 91, of the Fifth avenue line, ran into and upper the wagnin. Hunter was thrown set, but excepted with a few bruless. The wagno and its contents were destroyed. Hunter claims his loss in $100.
